PERSONAL AND LOCAL NEWS.

B. F. Brown has returned from a trip to Yuma.

B. F. Davidson of Way was in the city Wednesday.

Miss Lucas Wyly has gone to Huntingdon to attend school.

J. R. Davidson of Johnsonville was over a few days this week.

The teachers' association will hold its monthly meeting here tomorrow.

Dr. R. B. Travis was able to be out Monday, for the first time in over a month.

Mit Hamer, who is sick at the home of J. J. Weatherly, was some better yesterday.

Communications from Eva and Brecheen have been received too late for publication.

Mrs. Stella Denton of Waverly has been spending a few days here with relatives and friends.

J. D. Peeler of Crowell was here on a visit to relatives this week, and paid us a pleasant call.

Several from here will attend the tri-county teachers' association which meets at Hollow Rock today.

Its a girl, arrived Tuesday, and no one steps higher, looks wiser or can smile broader than Phillip Redick.

The returning delegates from conference of the M. E. Church at Dickson report an enjoyable time. Rev. E. R. Conder is succeeded by Rev. J. W. DeShazo on the Camden circuit. Rev. G. W. Florence was returned to Friendship circuit in Crockett County.

In order to ascertain the quantity of syrup made in our county, we would be glad if parties who own or are operating mills would furnish us with the total number of gallons of sorghum made this fall. John Nobles reports 1,300 gallons and G. W. Cantrell 1,000.

June apples in October hardly seems a possibility, and yet it is a fact. Dave Watson handed us several apples last Friday that are the second crop of June apples, and Monday Lem Thompson left with us some second crop June apples. The fruit is of good size and good flavor. Who can beat it?

Will S. Corbitt and his mother and sister were called to Tennessee by the first of the week by the death of R. M. Corbitt. The deceased died of dropsy, and had been an invalid for some months. The family formerly resided here, and have many friends whom we join in extending condolence and sympathy.

The free attractions at Jackson during the week of October 26 to 31, will be made one of the features of the carnival. See Court Edwards' thrilling ride for life down a 150 foot stairway on a unicycle.

Wanted—200,000 axe handles. See T. J. Throgmorton at Camden depot.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit court met Monday, and is still in session as we go to press.

Adam Garner received a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary, and Hugh and Walter Kirk three years each.

Duck Pafford was sentenced to jail six months and fined $50 and cost.

The case against John Elmore was compromised, and he married the defendant, Miss Lula Ballard, Wednesday.

Full proceedings will be given next week.

FROM GREENBRIER.

Regular correspondence.]

Several from here are attending court at Camden.

S. A. Herrin will soon complete his new dwelling house.

We are expecting to get the free delivery mail service soon.

Mrs. E. J. Byrn visited relatives at Camden Monday and Tuesday.

John Herrin and sister, Miss Rhoda, of Hazel, Ky., are here on a visit.

Robert Pierce has sold his farm to Asa Cherry and bought a place at Big Sandy.

Jesse Cantrell returned home last week from a trip to Missouri and Lake County.

W. A. Matthews moved his saw mill from Paris last week, and will be ready for work soon.

Lillie, little daughter of Marion Davis, died Thursday of last week. The child was taken with whooping cough and later went into fever. The interment was at Baker's Chapel Cemetery. We join in extending sympathy to the bereaved. GREENBRIER, October 13.

Don't fail to see the great Gaskill-Mundy death trap loop at the Pythian Carnival at Jackson, October 26 to 31. Nicholas Chefalo, the only remaining one of the three death-defying dare-devils, who began the season with this thrilling performance.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

In accordance with the call of the president, the Benton County Farmers' Institute met at the court house in Camden on Saturday, the 10th instant, at 10.30 a. m.

On motion of Judge L. E. Davis, an adjournment was taken until 1 p. m. (on account of the small attendance), at which time the meeting was called to order by the president and declared open for business.

Grasses and general farming was ably discussed by L. E. Davis.

W. D. Cooper discussed the subject of agricultural instruction, insisting with C. C. Vick that this important subject should be added to the public school curriculum.

Poultry was the subject of a very able address by T. J. Lowry, who submitted figures and statistics showing that chicken and egg raising is the most profitable branch of agriculture in our county and State, and if conducted properly can be made much more profitable than it is at present.

Stock raising was discussed by E. Quillen, breeder of pure stock. A general discussion of the diseases of live stock was engaged in by Dr. J. B. Florence, T. J. Lowry, J. L. Wright and others, which was very instructive.

Preventives of the depredations and destruction of grains, vegetables, etc., by rats and insects, was discussed and several useful remedies or recipes were given by G. B. Holladay, L. E. Davis, Robert L. Phillips and others.

On motion, the election of delegates to attend the division institute to be held at Jackson next month was taken up, and L. E. Davis, G. B. Holladay and J. L. Wright were appointed as a committee to select delegates to said institute, who reported the following names as delegates:

- 1—D. D. Byrd and H. D. Odle.
- 2—W. P. Oxford and G. W. Kirk.
- 3—A. V. Hardin and J. W. Saunders.
- 4—D. J. Allen and P. A. Bridges.
- 5—L. E. Davis and G. B. Holladay.
- 6—J. L. Wright and E. N. Quillen.
- 7—W. H. Melton and F. H. Phifer.
- 8—J. H. Hudson and G. W. Cantrell.
- 9—John Askew and J. G. Clement.
- 10—O. T. Wilson and N. P. Lashlee.
- 11—A. J. Goodman and Aaron Hatley.
- 12—J. J. Cole and S. T. Presson.
- 13—B. F. Brevard and Joe Odle.
- 14—H. W. Crabbs and James Smith.
- 15—W. D. Somers and H. A. Wafford.
- 16—R. W. Lindsey and B. F. Akers.

The institute unanimously ratified the report of the committee, and, on motion, the president, J. P. Lashlee, and the secretary, I. N. Bridges, were added to the above list of delegates.

The discussion of the good roads question was deferred until next meeting for want of time.

On motion, it was ordered that a copy of the proceedings and a list of the delegates be furnished The Camden Chronicle for publication.

On motion, the thanks of the institute was tendered the editor of THE CHRONICLE for his courtesy in publishing the proceedings of our institutes, calls, etc., in the past, and a like courtesy is bespoken in the future.

J. P. LASHLEE,

I. N. BRIDGES,

Secretary.

It is important that all delegates notify the secretary, I. N. Bridges, at Camden, not later than November 1 of their intention to attend the institute at Jackson. All delegates will be provided with free railroad transportation to and from Jackson.

A STOCK SHOW

There was a large attendance at the stock show Monday, and some good horses and mules competed for the premiums. The awards were as follows:

Best horse colt—A genuine Boker penknife, Fry Drug Co. Awarded to John C. Rushing.

Second best horse colt—A buggy rug, by Claude Hudson & Co. Awarded to Charles Alsop.

Best mare colt—Saddle blanket, Lashlee & Hall. Awarded to Z. Sensting.

Second best mare colt—Buggy whip, Melton Bros. Awarded to Lindsey Melton.

Best horse mule colt—Pair of "W. L. Douglass $3.00 Shoes," T. J. Lowry & Co. Awarded to L. E. Davis.

Second best horse mule colt—Pair of cuff buttons, Stigall & Potts. Awarded to Jasper Rushing.

Best mare mule colt—$1.50 bridle, Fry & Hudson. Awarded to Duncan Smith.

Second best mare mule colt—blind bridle, D. B. Thomas. Awarded to Jahugh Moore.

Best mule, any age—A $2.00 rocking chair, T. H. Bateman. Awarded to E. Quillen.

Best gelding, any age—Pair dress shirts Nalfeh Bros. Awarded to J. R. Thomas.

Best mare, any age—$1.50 hat, Bowles & Redick. Awarded to E. Quillen.

Poorest horse—Package world beater stock powder, W. Ernest McCullough. Awarded to Cyrus Thompson.

Fattest horse—A pipe, J. G. Presson. Awarded to G. H. Harper.

Ugliest man—1 pound of tobacco, L. P. Browning. Awarded to W. T. Townsend.

CARNIVAL AT JACKSON.

The Pythian Carnival and Street Fair at Jackson, Tenn., October 26 and 31, will eclipse all former efforts of the committee. They have secured the great Gaskill-Mundy Carnival Co. for the week, which, together with Mr. Sterling P. Anderson of Jackson as the director-general, is a sufficient guarantee of the success of the enterprise. Special efforts will be made to entertain the visiting thousands during the week. Cheap rates on all railroads leading into Jackson good for the entire week of this great celebration.

FROM BIG SANDY.

Regular correspondence.]

The new livery stable will be completed by November 1.

L. B. Luck of McKinnon is visiting old friends here this week.

Miss Bessie Porter of Paris is the guest of Miss Mattie Scheurer. Quite a large crowd went from here to Camden Monday to attend court.

J. M. Flippis and family, formerly of Hazel, Ky., will make their future home in Big Sandy.

R. S. Wheeler and T. J. Meyers of the Cumberland Telephone Co. were here on business Thursday.

More cotton was brought to Big Sandy Saturday than any one day in the history of this little burg. That is to say, 80 loads of cotton were delivered here.

Three rural mail routes have been established and the appointments made, commencing November 2. Route No. 1—J. W. Jones, carrier; G. S. Brewer, substitute. Route No. 2—Ed Lindsey, carrier; J. S. Lindsey, substitute. Route No. 3—L. D. J. Cooper, carrier; J. M. Doty, substitute.

Our school is progressing nicely, and though there has been only one month taught, the interest manifested is wonderful. The attendance is 112, with an enrollment of 120, and prospects fair to reach 150 before the end of another month. There are several boarding students, and more are coming in every day.

BIG SANDY, October 13.

FROM WHEATLEY.

Regular correspondence.]

Mrs. Dora Berry has been very sick with fever, but is improving.

R. P. Berry, W. H. Lindsey, A. H. Wheatley, J. W. Gaddy and J. R. Hawkins are attending court at Camden this week.

Cotton was damaged and corn injured by the dry weather in the early fall.

Mrs. W. R. Collier will leave in a short time to visit her husband in Arkansas.

With much pleasure we chronicle the marriage of W. D. Lindsey and Miss Carrie Vester, which happy event occurred on the 4th instant. The groom bears a most creditable reputation, and he is a hustler from away back, while the bride is a most estimable and beautiful young lady. The writer joins a host of friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

WHEATLEY, October 13.

THE CHRONICLE wants an active correspondent in every locality in Benton County. Write to us for circular letter of instructions, etc. We want the news of the county.
